Here We Grow Again! Branch Expansion coming soon!

In our continued drive to expand our services throughout the region, Financial Trust will be announcing the opening of a brand new branch located in Irving, Chautauqua County very soon.

This new branch location serving southern tier members, means our services will be more easily accessible to both our current members and those interested in becoming new members. We have had many residents and businesses in the past who were unable to join due to their location. This expansion will now make it available to many of those interested.

These are exciting days for Financial Trust members and Western New York. By every measure we are Greater Together. With unparalleled service, we will be better for you, your companies and the communities we serve.

Watch for our official opening announcement soon!
